

Harvest Network Privacy Statement

(1) Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the GDPR).

(2) Who are we?

Harvest Network is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

(3) How do we process your personal data?

Harvest Network complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To enable us to provide pastoral care to our members and regular attenders of our meetings and events;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of Harvest Network;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and financial records;
- To inform you of news and events at Harvest Network;

(4) What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to financial records or under employment, social security or social protection law;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a religious aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

(5) Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of Harvest Network in order to carry out a service to other members of Harvest Network or for purposes connected with the Harvest Network. We will only share your data with third parties outside of Harvest Network with your consent.

(6) How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.

(7) Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which Harvest Network holds about you;
- The right to request that Harvest Network corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for Harvest Network to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable).
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

(8) Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Statement, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
